1. This office action, in response to the remarks filed 7/5/2006, is a non-final office action.

Response to Amendment

2. The declaration filed on 7/5/2006 under 37 CFR 1.131 is sufficient to overcome the Kong et al (US 2002/0067761) reference.
3. A new rejection rejecting claim 14 is stated below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kong (US 6,546,043).

Regarding claim 14, Kong discloses a method of processing received signals from a plurality of mobile terminals in a diversity receiving system using the receiver shown in figure 2. Each of the antennas receives a composite signal and each composite signal comprises a plurality of user signals (column 3, lines 1-26). The received signals are despread to obtain the separate user signals (figure 2). The separate user signals are input to a central processor (figure 2) and the separate user signals are combined and interference is removed from the received signals to obtain estimates of the user signals compensated for MAI (multiple access interference) (column 3, lines 19-26).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-13 and 31-41 are allowed.
6. Claims 15-30 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
